

Upcoming Adult Events at the El Paso District Library

Late 2018-Early 2019 schedule...please register by phone (527-4360) or stop by the library!

November 20th (Tuesday) at 7 pm—What's Coming Down the Line? The Railroad in the American Mind—presented by Mike Matejka of the McLean County Museum of History - A look at the railroad's impact on the nation's economy, culture, folklore, and children.

December 10 (Monday) —Local author, Tim Pletkovich will be at the library all day. He will have copies of his two books, Civil War Fathers: sons of the Civil War in World War II and Nuns, Nazis, and Notre Dame: Stories of the Great Depression, WWII, and the Fighting Irish, available for sale. Books make great Christmas presents to those on your shopping list who are hard-to-buy-for. Tim has been here a number of times and has such a warm, friendly, and affable personality that it is a real pleasure to have a conversation with him.

February 19 (Tuesday) at 6:30 pm—The Life of Hazle Buck Ewing by Toni Tucker, Director of Ewing Cultural Center—We've all heard of Ewing Manor and many of us have probably gone to an event there but what do you know about the former owner of the home, Hazle Buck Ewing? We hope you can join us to learn about the life of Hazle, her work to promote peace, and her amazing philanthropy.

Saturday, March 16 and March 23 at 10 am to Noon - Meals for a Healthy Heart by Jenna Smith, Extension Educator, Nutrition and Wellness, University of Illinois Extension—A two-part series to help you learn how diet and lifestyle changes can help manage or reduce your risk of high blood pressure and/or cholesterol. We will discuss how to incorporate heart-healthy practices into your daily choices, from shopping to cooking to meal planning.—This class has a cost of $15 and you must be registered in advance—We must have 5 people sign up for this class by Wednesday, March 13th.

Some adult events may be appropriate for families. Families interested in attending adult events are welcome if the children are mature enough to sit quietly and listen without disturbing others who are trying to listen.

All the above are library supported events!
